

The Mariner's Mirror-Licence to publish

The undersigned

Name author ("the Author")

The Society for Nautical Research ("the Publisher")

the following licence.

Background

This agreement concerns the publishing of scholarly and/or scientific works, and is intended to reflect a balance between the rights of the Author and the Publisher, according to the following principles:

- The Author and the Publisher believe it is in the general interest to grant maximum access to scholarly and/or scientific works without compromising quality or academic freedom, especially when public resources finance such works;
- The Publisher wishes to receive financial compensation for his contribution in the publication of the scholarly and scientific work;
- The Author and the Publisher believe that particularly in the so-called subscription model a balance should be achieved between granting maximum access to scholarly and/or scientific works and granting financial compensation for the publication of these works.

Clause 1 Definitions

The following words shall have the following meanings:

1. Acceptance: the communication to the Author by the Publisher of his willingness to publish the Author's work.
2. Article: the published version of the Author's work, entitled:
3. Publication: The journal or similar periodical publication, in print or in digital form, for which the Article is destined:

Clause 2 Licence of rights

1. Upon Acceptance, the Author grants to the Publisher a sole licence to exploit the rights listed in clause 2.2 in the Article or Note throughout the world for the full term of the copyright.
2. The sole licence mentioned in clause 2.1 encompasses the right for the Publisher:
 - a. to reproduce the Article or Note in whole or in part, and to communicate the Article or Note to the public in print and/or digital form, whether or not in combination with the works of others, for example the making available to the public via internet or any other network, as part of a database, on-line or off-line, for use by third parties;
 - b. to translate the Article or Note into other languages and to communicate the translation of the Article or Note to the public;
 - c. to create adaptations, summaries or extracts of the Article or Note or other derivative works based on the Article or Note and exercise all of the rights in such adaptations, summaries, extracts and derivative works;
 - d. to include the Article or Note, whether in translation or as adaptation or summary, in whole or in part in a computerised database and to make this database available to third parties;
 - e. to include the Article or Note, in whole or in part, whether in translation or as adaptation or summary, in a reader or compilation;
 - f. to rent or lend the Article or Note to third parties;
 - g. to reproduce the Article or Note by means of reprography, notwithstanding the limitations in the law.
3. The Publisher undertakes that the name of the Author and the source is acknowledged in standard bibliographic citation form.

Clause 3 Rights reserved by Author

1. The Author retains all other rights with respect to the Article or Note not granted to the Publisher and in particular he can exercise the following rights:

Educational or research use

To reproduce the Article or Note, in whole or in part, and to communicate it or make it available to the public, whether in print and/or digital form, whether as part of a course pack or a compilation, for use in education or research within the Author's own institution or the institutions with which the Author is affiliated.

Dissemination

To upload the Article or Note or to grant to the Author's own institution (or another appropriate organization) the authorisation to upload the Article or Note, immediately from the date of publication of the journal in which the Article or Note is published (unless that the Author and the Publisher have agreed in writing to a short embargo period, with a maximum of six (6) months):

- a) on to the institution's closed network (e.g. intranet system); and/or
- b) on to publicly accessible institutional and/or centrally organised repositories .

Preservation

To grant to the Author's own institution (or another appropriate organization) the authorisation to reproduce the Article or Note for the purpose of preventing it from deteriorating, or if the original is currently in an obsolete format or the technology required to use the original is unavailable, for the purpose of ensuring that the Article or Note continues to be available for education and research purposes;

Future re-use

To re-use whole or part of the Article or Note in a dissertation, compilation or other work.

Personal use

To present the Article or Note at a meeting or conference and to hand out copies of the Article or Note to the delegates attending the meeting.

Use by end users

To grant to end users of the Author's own institution or (or another appropriate organization), the authorisation to copy, use, distribute, transmit and display the work publicly and to make and distribute derivative works.

2. For every form of (re)use of the Article or Note as described in the above paragraphs, the Author or the Publisher undertakes always to include the complete source (at least the Author's name, the title and the number of the Publication, and the name of the Publisher), unless this is impossible.

Clause 4 Moral rights

This agreement does not affect the moral rights of the Author in or to the Article or Note. More specifically, the Author asserts his right to be identified as the Author and the right to object to derogatory treatment.

Clause 5 Warranty

1. The Author warrants that he is the sole creator of the Article or Note and that the Article or Note does not infringe any existing third party copyright or moral right.
2. The Author shall hold harmless and indemnify the Publisher from any third party claims resulting from the publication of the Article or Note should there be a breach of this warranty. The warranties contained in this article or note also apply to any drawing, photograph or other illustration included in the Article or Note and delivered by the Author.
3. The Author authorises the Publisher to institute, in co-operation with the Author, the necessary steps to prevent third party infringement of the copyright in the Article or Note. The Author and Publisher undertake to provide each other full co-operation and complete information in this regard. The costs are subject to a separate agreement when the question arises.

Clause 6 Obligation to publish

1. The Publisher in accepting the article or note for publication does so in good faith and accepts no responsibility for any breach of copyright, warranty or undertaking that might be owned by/to another party or the entitled successors of that party.
2. Subject to the Acceptance by the Publisher undertakes to publish the Article or Note to the customary standard of the Publisher at the cost and expense of the Publisher within a reasonable period after Acceptance.

Clause 7 Complimentary Offprints

Author/s are entitled to a free electronic pdf copy of their published article and/or a free copy of the journal.

Clause 8 Legal relationship

1. The Publisher may transfer the exploitation rights on the Article or Note to a third party, provided that this third party fulfils the Publisher's obligations contained in this agreement towards the Author.
2. If the Author can show that his moral rights are affected by the use of his Article or Note by the Publisher pursuant to a licence, the Author may demand that the Publisher stop said use. The Publisher must honour the request unless this cannot be reasonably asked of him in view of the scientific or historical value of the Article.

3. The Author has the right to terminate this agreement if the Publisher goes into bankruptcy or liquidation or any other arrangement for the benefit of its creditors.
4. Termination of this agreement does not affect any prior valid agreement made by the Publisher with third parties.
5. Nothing in this agreement is intended to confer rights on any third party.

Clause 9 Multiple Authors

In the case of multiple authors, the Author has the consent of each author to enter this Licence to publish on behalf of them.

Clause 10 Applicable Law

This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Law of England whose courts shall be courts of competent jurisdiction.

Clause 11 Final clause

The agreement comes into effect immediately on Acceptance and shall remain in force for the lifetime of the copyright in the Article or Note.
