

New Researchers in
Maritime History

University of Exeter
12-13 March 2010
Programme and booking form

British Commission for Maritime History

BCMh is grateful for the generous support of the Society for Nautical Research in sponsoring this conference

New Researchers in Maritime History
University of Exeter
12-13 March 2010

Programme

Friday 12th March

17:00 Registration and refreshments

18:00 Keynote lecture

19:00-21:00 Reception and buffet supper

Saturday 13th March

9.00 Registration

9.30-10.45 Session One:

Timothy DANIELS (California)

'To obstruct and intercept'. The operations of the English navy in the months before the English Civil War.

Sarah KINKEL (Yale)

The Royal Navy and the threat of imperial failure in the seven years war.

Michael HUMPHRIES (King's College London)

The Society of Islanders and the 'Two keels for one' naval policy, 1910-1914.

10.45-11.15 Coffee

11.15 -12.30 Session Two:-

Anna CARLSSON-HYSLOP (Manchester)

Tidal science, the Liverpool Tidal Institute and the Hydrographic Department.

Robert GEAR (Hull)

The impact of technological change on the Shetland Pelagic fishing Industry since 1945.

Kimberley PETERS (London)

Radio Caroline as 'maritime history' a tale of power at sea.

12.30-13:30 Lunch

13:30-14:45 Session Three:

Moirira BRACKNALL (Exeter)

Commissioned officers' careers in the Royal Navy during Lord Spencer's Admiralty 1794-1801.

Richard HAINES (Swansea)

'An embarassment of riches?' The significance of crew agreement lists for the history of Swansea during the nineteenth century.

Jamie BUNTIN (Greenwich)

The 1925 Reduction of HM Dockyard Rosyth to 'Care and Maintenance'.

14.45- 15.00 Tea

15.00 16.15 Session Four:

Joshua NEWTON (Cambridge)

War and trade in West Africa: The navy and the slave trade, 1750-1807

Ruth MANDUJANO (British Columbia)

The Mexican-Pacific connection: the case of the Compania de Navegacion del Pacifico 1884-1888

Gabriela FREI (Oxford)

War threats, protection of trade and the debate on naval strategic thinking in Great Britain 1878-1889.

NB Programme is correct at time of going to press, but the organisers reserve the right to make changes if speakers withdraw.

New Researchers in Maritime History
12-13 March 2010

Booking Form

Send to: Claire Keyte, c/o The Department of History, University of Exeter; Amory Building,
Rennes Drive, Exeter, EXEX2 4RJ

PLEASE REGISTER BY FRIDAY 25 FEBRUARY 2010

Title First Name Surname

Institutional affiliation (if any)

Address

Postcode Email address

Telephone

Please reserve me a conference place at £25 / £20 (student)

Dietary requirements:

I enclose my cheque made payable to University of Exeter for £ _____

New Researchers in Maritime History Conference 2009

University of Exeter

The eighteenth New Researchers in Maritime History Conference, run by the British Commission for Maritime History and sponsored by the Society for Nautical Research, will be hosted by the University of Exeter. The conference gives new researchers the opportunity to present their work in a constructive atmosphere, and all are welcome to attend.

The conference starts on Friday evening, when Dr Michael Duffy will deliver the keynote lecture. This will be followed by a reception and buffet supper. On Saturday there will be papers from new researchers on a wide range of topics (see programme).

COST for the conference: Adults £25, Students £20 (includes buffet on Friday evening, and lunch and refreshments on Saturday).

To secure your place, please complete and return the attached form enclosing your cheque made payable to The University of Exeter.

Please forward to: Claire Keyte, c/o The Department of History, University of Exeter; Amory Building, Rennes Drive, Exeter, EXEX2 4RJ